

FESN Virtual Summer School,

24-25 August, 2020

“A Toolbox for Neuropsychological Research and Practice”

Preliminary Programme, all times Berlin time (CET)

All keynote lectures will be organised in Zoom, hosted by Laura Hokkanen, and the link will be sent to all applicants two weeks before the event. The pre-recorded talks will be available for two weeks (August 24 – September 6) and also the live talks, if possible, will be recorded and saved for viewing the same period of time.

August 24th

10am Sergio Della Sala (live) Neuropsychology in the ward: Observations and Explorations.

11am Teppo Särkämö (live) Intervention research in Clinical Neuropsychology

12am Michel Thiebaut de Schotten (live) Brain disconnections link structural connectivity with function and behaviour

Lunch break

2pm Christoph Sperber (pre-recorded) Multivariate lesion-deficit inference – the benefits of new analysis methods and its shortcomings

3pm Christopher Madan (pre-recorded) Using large open-access neuroimaging datasets to understand the brain

August 25th

10-1.30pm Student presentations

On WebEx only for those with special registration (closed), organised by Michael Niedeggen

2pm Michael Niedeggen (live) On the use of EEG/ERP in Clinical Neuropsychology

3pm Katherine Dyke (pre-recorded) Clinical application of non-invasive brain stimulation