

	Monday, July 22nd	Tuesday, July 23rd	Wednesday, July 24th	Thursday, July 25th
9.30 -11.00	Registration	A primer on Diffusion Tensor Imaging. Michel Thiebaut de Schotten (University of Bordeaux)	A primer on conducting lesion symptom mapping analyses. Hans-Otto Karnath (University of Tübingen)	Exploring the neural basis of behavioural syndromes Pedro Alves (University of Lisbon)
11.00 - 11.30	Opening session How can clinical practice inform neuropsychological research? Isabel Pavão Martins (University of Lisbon)	Coffee Break + posters	Coffee Break + posters	Coffee Break + posters
11.30 - 13.00	Conceptual Issues in Neuropsychology: Better methods in Neuropsychology diagnostics. Edward de Haan (Donders Institute)	How can neuropsychological research inform clinical practice? Lisa Cipolotti (University College of London)	Big Data Analysis. Christopher Madan (University of Nottingham)	Roundtable - How to publish in the Nature Portfolio: tips and tricks for successful publication. João Valente (Nature Communications Biology)
13.00 - 14.00	Lunch + posters	Lunch + posters	Lunch + posters	Lunch + posters
14.00 - 15.30	A primer on using non-invasive brain stimulation. Stephen Jackson (University of Nottingham)	Subjective cognitive decline: A challenge for Neuropsychology. Michael Niedeggen (Free University of Berlin)	A hitchhiker's guide to lesion symptom mapping analyses Bianca de Hann (Brunel University of London)	Student discussion
15.30 - 16.00	Tea + Posters	Tea + Posters	Tea + Posters	Closing session Stephen Jackson (University of Nottingham)
16.00 - 18.00	Data Blitz 1- Student Presentations (Format: 5 minute presentation, max 4 slides + 5 mins Q&A)	Data Blitz 2- Student Presentations (Format: 5 minute presentation, max 4 slides + 5 mins Q&A)	Data Blitz 3- Student Presentations (Format: 5 minute presentation, max 4 slides + 5 mins Q&A)
18.00 - onwards		Social event

